Chapter 22

And were we are... up to raw... sorta.

Not sure if we're going with a one chapter buffer, or just diving straight into it. I no longer work on this series, so, doesn't matter to me much. I assume it'll be more of the same, which I'm hoping is a good thing. Though I am giving up this series, I've also started doing the editing on a Korean webtoon with our KTL. So, handing this off will help ease my struggle.
